

Volunteer Declaration and Commitment

I voluntarily sign up to participate in the "China International Corporative Beach Games 2024" and all related activities. I possess the civil capacity required to participate in this event and fully understand and agree to abide by all the regulations, rules, requirements, and management measures formulated by the event organizers and institutions.

I clearly understand and agree to bear all risks and responsibilities that may arise from participating in this event; I commit that I have undergone a physical examination by a formal medical institution and confirmed that my physical condition is suitable for this event; I commit that I have purchased personal accident insurance as required by the organizing committee for the duration of the event.

I agree that all photos and video materials taken by the organizing committee during this event that contain my image shall belong to the organizing committee permanently and free of charge; the organizing committee has the right to reasonably process and modify the image materials for commercial purposes without needing to obtain my further consent; any proceeds from the use of the image materials in whole or in part by the organizing committee shall belong to the organizing committee, and I waive any right to share in the distribution; the organizing committee has the right to use the image materials in whole or in part for profit or non-profit purposes on various media or platforms domestically and internationally without further notifying me.

I will provide identification documents and necessary materials as required by the organizing committee to verify my identity and participation qualifications, ensuring that the submitted documents and materials are true and valid, and bear all responsibilities arising from providing false information.

I agree to comply with the competition discipline, obey the requirements of referees, medical, and security staff during the competition; if I experience physical discomfort or other emergencies during the competition, I will voluntarily withdraw and bear all responsibilities and consequences arising from insisting on continuing the competition; I agree to receive on-site emergency medical treatment provided by the organizing committee in the event of injuries, and if further hospital treatment is needed, the related expenses will be borne by myself.

Participating Team:

Team Leader (Coach) Signature:

Athlete Signature: